Pawlicious

Pawlicious is an e-commerce platform that specializes in pet food and edibles ranging from dehydrated meat to cookies to celebration cakes. Pawcups is different then any other pet food companies because it is canine centric and doesn't uses oils and sugar in its products. It also lets you customise products an celebratory eibles and cakes.

Wireframe of the website has been presented on the next page. It is the basic skeleton and planning for any website. It determines the layout, number of pages and style of the website.
